

To Whom It May Concern,

I just wanted to express my thanks and gratitude for your wonderful service. As a working mother, I am extremely picky about my childcare and was quite nervous about flying cross country with a 6 month old infant and having a sitter come to my hotel that I had never met or interviewed! Your agency was great in making me feel comfortable and confirming dates/times with me prior to my departure.

Barbara Barret was an absolute joy and within minutes, I felt comfortable with her. By the end of my two week business trip, my son would light up and smile when he saw her every morning. She is wonderful with Aidan and could not have asked for a better arrangement. Thank you so much!

As I mentioned, I will be traveling to Florida once a month and am thrilled to have established such a great relationship with your agency and Barbara. I will be contacting you in the upcoming weeks to determine if Barbara is available.

Thanks again -- I look forward to speaking with you soon!

Best Regards,
